

Tucking Mill

‘At Lyme, Dorsetshire. To be Let or Sold by Private Contract, A Tucking Mill, with the Wheel and Two Stocks, a Houfe for the Mill Man, a very large Burling Shop, with a dry linhay over it, and a large Share [?] Shop; a convenient Dwelling-Houfe adjoining, with a good garden; alfo Five Large Weaving Shops, with a number of Looms in them, a Warping Shop, with Warping Bars, a Sizing Shop, with a Furnace, and Store rooms, and a Room, with a new Iron Singing [?] Barrel; and a little Field adjoining.

The premifes are convenient for erecting, at a very fmall expence, a machine for fpinning cotton or worfted .. For further particulars apply to Mr John Gage, at Lyme ..’

Sherborne Mercury 11 August 1794

Martin Bodman Research Notes February 2002